DAILY RECORD-UNION

THURSDAY..... OCTOBER 9, 1884

The RECORD-UNION is the only paper on the coast, outside of San Francisco, that receives the full Associated Press dispatches from all parts of the world. Outside of San Francisco it has no competitor, in point of numbers, in its home and general circulation throughout the coast. Challenges of two to one, covering points above, extend to local evening paper, remain open for acceptance.

S. C. Beechell, "Tribune" Building, New York, sole agent for the Eastern States. Wm. Cameron, No. 8 New Montgomery street, San Francisco, special agent for San Francisco and vicinity.

The gain of a four-cent in one board is lost at the succeeding session, affording little encouragement to operators. AN IMPORTANT SUBJECT.

There is now under consideration by the State Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry—in annual session in this city—the subject of premium lists at agricultural fairs. It is a topic of much interest. It is the conviction of all who have given the subject thought that the premium lists adopted by the agricultural societies of this State are very defective. They appear to have been formulated upon the principle of money rewards—a misconception in the outset. The premiums are disproportioned, are often vague and uncertain, and the competition invited is frequently of such a character that the award really amounts to nothing as a stimulus to industry, inventive genius or production.

Thus, it is a common thing to find in the same class a like premium for “best sample” and “best specimen.” Not one committee man in one hundred is able to immediately or correctly draw the distinction between these two terms when examining exhibits, and they result uniformly is, where there are two committees, to “shift the responsibility,” and give one the premium for the “best sample” and the other for the “best specimen.” Many of the classes call for goods of American manufacture, but no proofs are required as to the origin of the product, and the committees are driven to accept the ipso dictu of the exhibitors. It is notorious that frauds are perpetrated in consequence.

Then again, there appears to be nothing to prevent the same piece of handwork from taking a leading premium year after year, to the discouragement of fresh competitors. Still, his soft answer failed to turn away the wrath of the Scouts, and thus hotly responded: “Does Mr. Henderson represent the committee when thus throwing cold water on the Scouts’ political fight with the Republican candidate in the Courts?” In case Mr. Henderson replies in the affirmative, the Scouts proposes to appeal to the party committee as “cowardly and unworthy.” Thus far Mr. Henderson has declined to reply, and likewise has held fast to the committee money-bags. In its sore distress we do not doubt that the Scouts will receive assistance from the Hearst treasury, as the Scouts’ cause is a just one.

The Republic party is largely made up of teachers, and means to take advantage of this to their own benefit. But I restrain myself, and my dear friend Shoemaker, I fear, must fight it out alone.” Evidently the Chairman understood precisely what was meant by “moral support.” Still, his soft answer failed to turn away the wrath of the Scouts, and thus hotly responded: “Does Mr. Henderson represent the committee when thus throwing cold water on the Scouts’ political fight with the Republican candidate in the Courts?” In case Mr. Henderson replies in the affirmative, the Scouts proposes to appeal to the party committee as “cowardly and unworthy.” Thus far Mr. Henderson has declined to reply, and likewise has held fast to the committee money-bags.
